FALSE DOCTRINE GOING UNDER THE RADAR

Jason Patrick Hilburn

Many Bible believers know not to steal, kill, etc., but false doctrine often goes under the radar and gets them (false plans of salvation, false ways of worship, false doctrines about Christ or His second coming, etc.), because, sadly, many do not know God's Word well enough to recognize error (Mt. 22:29). Many sincere believers in Jesus have no idea that false doctrine caused believers in Jesus to be lost, such as Hymenaeus, Philetus, many Galatians, and others. Did you know Hymenaeus, Philetus, and those who followed them became lost, not because they stopped believing in Jesus, but simply because they were teaching error about the resurrection of the dead? Did you know the Galatians became lost, not because they stopped believing in Jesus, but simply because they believed that men must be circumcised according to the old law? There are differences between the old and new covenants that we must understand or be lost. We don't worship the same way they did under the old covenant, and we are not under the Law of Moses. There are many other kinds of deadly errors out there today besides these.

In the Bible faithful Christians are repeatedly warned that misusing Scriptures (or following those who do) leads to destruction, even if we still believe that Jesus is the Son of God (Gal. 5:2-6; 2 Tim. 2:15-18; 2 Pet. 3:15-18; cf. Rom. 16:17; 2 Jn. 9-11). We may believe in Jesus as God's Son, but we must also believe and live by the truths He revealed about other critical matters through the inspired writers of the Bible (Mt. 28:20; Jn. 15:26; 1 Cor. 14:37). Jesus Himself said to live "by every word" from God, not just a handful of verses (Mt. 4:4). For the sake of our eternal destinies (and those we influence), we should study the Bible diligently and compare carefully all religious teachings of men to God's Word. As the Lord said through Paul, "Prove [test] all things; hold fast that which is good" (1 Thess. 5:21; cf. Acts 17:11).

THE HYPOCRISY OF "FAITH ONLY SALVATION"

Jason Patrick Hilburn

Some say man is saved by faith alone without any acts of obedience. Is it not ironic that these who put so much emphasis on belief do not actually believe what God said? Those who teach "faith only" salvation are the very ones who do not have faith in what God said!

- ◆ They don't believe God, who said that "by works a man is justified, and not by faith only" (James 2:24).
- ◆ They don't believe God, who said that "faith without works is dead" (James 2:20).
- ◆ They don't believe God, who said that "ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth" (1 Peter 1:22).
- ◆ They don't believe we have any role in our salvation, even though God said, "Save yourselves" (Acts 2:38-40).
- ◆ They don't believe God, who said that baptism is "for the forgiveness of sins" (Acts 2:38).

- ◆ They don't believe God, who said that baptism is to "wash away thy sins" (Acts 22:16).
- ◆ They don't believe Jesus, who requires both belief and baptism for salvation: "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved" (Mark 16:16).
- ◆ They don't believe God, who said that "water...baptism doth also now save us" (1 Peter 3:20, 21).
- ◆ They don't believe God, who said man is not in Christ until he is "baptized into Christ" (Romans 6:3-5; Galatians 3:26, 27; cf. 2 Timothy 2:10).
- ◆ They don't believe God, who said that man becomes "free from sin" after he has "obeyed that form of doctrine" (Romans 6:16-18).
- ◆ They don't believe God, who said that "he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him" (Acts 10:35).
- ◆ They don't believe God, who said to obey Him and "work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" (Philippians 2:12).
- ◆ They don't believe Jesus, who taught that belief in Him alone is not enough, and that only those who obey God will go to Heaven (Matthew 7:21-23).

Those who put so much emphasis on belief inconsistently accept verses about the necessity of grace, repentance, and confession (going beyond "faith alone"), but amazingly reject verses that speak just as plainly about the necessity of water baptism! One cannot really be a person of faith if he does not believe everything God said (Romans 10:17; Hebrews 11:6), so it seems hypocritical or inconsistent to preach about faith and lack faith at the same time. People of true faith believe every word of the Holy Scriptures, not just a few verses that talk about faith or grace. May we all study and "rightly divide God's Word," finding the harmony that exists in the totality of the Scriptures, with the desire to please God and go to Heaven (Psalm 119:160; 1 Thessalonians 5:21).

TIME

My name is time. I haven't always been and I won't always be, but right now I'm on the move, measuring out life.

Men wait for me, submit to me, fear me; but no one can stop me except God. He is in control, and He says I am running out...

Most men think I'm on the move forever. But I'm not. When I stop, eternity will keep right on going...

And it will be too late—too late for repentance, too late for getting right with God through Jesus Christ His Son, too late for faith—just "forever" left for tears and anguished regrets....

Now is the day of salvation. Will it be that day for you?

My name is TIME, and I'm on the move. I'm nearing the end. And I'm taking you with me... into Eternity.
