

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS - #2

1. Without special revelation, what is the most you could ever learn about God?
2. What is the difference between general and special revelation?
3. In what way does everyone, even the non-Christian, practice theology?
4. In what way(s) has God given us special revelation?
5. What is a prophet?
6. Is it possible for there to be a contradiction between general and special revelation? Why or why not?
7. All false religion today is ultimately the result of what?
8. How does one prove the authenticity of a prophet?
9. What would prove that one was a false prophet?
10. Do mere feelings and intuition prove that a revelation is from God?