

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS #6

1. What is the difference, if any, between inspiration and revelation?
2. How would you define inspiration?
3. To whom did Jesus make the promise He would send the Holy Spirit in John 16:13? To whom did He not make the promise?
4. What part of the New Testament is from Jesus?
5. How is the Bible inspired by God while at the same time written by man?
6. What do we mean when we say the Bible claims "verbal, plenary" inspiration?
7. Is the Bible God's Word, or is it merely a fluid text through by which God expresses His will?
8. If the Bible is not inerrant, what are the implications?
9. How would you answer someone who believes the Bible is merely a narrative of God's interaction with mankind and therefore does not contain any systematic theology?
10. Who, or what, should have the final say in matters of faith and religion?
