

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS #7

1. Do you think our typically busy lifestyles affect how modern American Christians approach Bible study? In what way(s)?
2. What do you believe is the most important prerequisite to effective Bible study?
3. What kind of beliefs or attitudes do you believe make Bible study pointless?
4. What kind of study habits work best for you?
5. Do you have any advice to give someone on methods of Bible study? (Note-taking techniques, different ways to study the Bible, reference books, etc.)
6. What do you believe is the first thing to know about a text before you start studying it?
7. What other guidelines do you think one should remember as he or she studies a given text?
8. What advice would you give someone on how to make the most of Bible study?
9. How would you answer someone who believes we need the Holy Spirit to illuminate our understanding of the text?
10. How would you answer someone who believes they need Jesus more than they need Bible study?