

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS #8

1. What do you think would be the implication if God were not capable of revealing Himself objectively or propositionally?
2. Where does faith come from? What is faith not?
3. Can you think of any other biblical examples where we find biblical authority in direct statements (or commands)?
4. Can you think of any other biblical examples where we find biblical authority in examples, or (or divinely approved actions)?
5. Can you think of any other biblical examples where we find biblical authority in necessary inferences (or implications)?
6. Can you think of any other biblical examples where we find biblical authority by expediencies (or necessary methods of obedience)?
7. When does God's silence forbid an action?
8. Can you think of examples of things that are forbidden by God's silence?
9. What would you say to someone who believes the Bible does not contain commands for us today?
10. What would you say to someone who believes one interpretation is as good as another?